Radnor senior Sophia Blair signs letter of intent with Duke University as parents Mark and Carol Ann Blair look on.

Radnor High School senior Sophia Blair has signed a letter of intent to attend Duke University for crew for the 2011-2012 school year.

A member of the Radnor crew team, Blair attended the US Rowing Junior National Team Development camps in 2008 and 2009. She also received the Radnor girls' crew team's Most Valuable Rower Award in 2010 and served as team captain in 2010-2011. In 2010, Blair won a bronze medal in the varsity eight at the Stotesbury Cup and a silver at the Scholastic Nationals.

Blair plans on majoring in International Comparative Studies at Duke.
